

Title:	International Banking – Limitations & Possibilities Blended Intensive Programme
Lecture hours:	VIRTUAL mobility - on-line lectures: 15 hours (March/April 2023) PHYSICAL mobility - workshop on-site: 26 hours (22-26 May 2023) Student's SELF-STUDY and COOPERATION in a group: aprox. 35 hours
Study period:	Registration: until 21 st February 2023 Active phase: 1 st March – 31 st May 2023
Number of credits:	4 ECTS
Assessment methods:	- active participation in sessions - towards the end of the course, you will be required to prepare and present together with your international team a project/presentation about given topic
Language of instruction:	English
Prerequisites:	Speak English well enough to participate in classes conducted in English (B1+ or higher)
Course content:	International Banking – Limitations & Possibilities – Blended Intensive Programme is a combination of VIRTUAL & PHYSICAL MOBILITY with short, interactive lectures conducted by international, experienced experts and researchers, supplemented by short videos, practical case-studies, authentic documents, class discussions, group case studies, workshops, research, group presentations and projects. Presentations and study materials will be provided to students. Innovative methods, tools, platforms will be used in friendly atmosphere of cooperation. Main topics: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Introduction to International Banking 2. Types of risk in banking 3. Legal acts 4. Global financial crises 5. International bank supervision 6. Capital requirements 7. Investment strategies 8. Banking systems 9. Statistics of banking sector for each partner's country 10. PESTEL analysis 11. Offshore banking 12. Exposure to international risk 13. Financing international trade 14. Money Laundering 15. Future of banking 16. Green banking 17. Most innovative banks and its strategy in participant's countries 18. Bank offer
Learning outcomes:	By the end of the International Banking – Limitations & Possibilities Blended Intensive Programme you will have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - developed your awareness and understanding of international banking operations in global markets, construction and usage of international banking services; - gathered knowledge by cooperation with international students for different range of international banking topics; - discovered gaps, differences, limitations and possibilities in international banking from different countries; - learned professional banking vocabulary items used in international banking; - been informed about future trends and directions in the development of banking markets; - used the course content to describe and demonstrate the understating of tailored service for special, company's needs. During the course you will also have several opportunities to work with other international students to build strong, international and social competences.
Name of Manager:	Dr Ewelina Idziak - ewelina.idziak@ukw.edu.pl
Literature:	Materials, presentations, instructions, documents, examples, case-studies will be provided by Lecturers. Added: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a.) A.W. Mnllineux (Editor), victor Murinde (Editor), "Handbook of international Banking", Edward Elgar Pub b.) S. MacDonald, "International Banking: Text and Cases", Addison-Wesley Publishing c.) B. Casu, "Introduction to Banking", Prentice Hall